In the period from 1507 to 1567, also served as master witcher for the second, third and fourth generations of Crane witchers, specialising in teaching different combat techniques to be used on land. During his father's death in 1555, he was one of those who opposed his burial at Kaer Seren, opting instead for Kaer Darh, which he considered a place that better represented him. In 1568, he would return to being an active witcher until finally the day of his death.
